

Apprentice & Journeymen Training Trust Fund of the Southern California Plumbing & Piping Industry

A&J Information Sharing Policy

A&J employees may only share member information with the UA member, the UA member's local union and the UA member's contractor. A&J employees shall not share member information, class schedules, re-schedules or any other member information with other individuals including a spouse, relatives, friends, and a significant other. In a case of an emergency, the emergency contact(s) supplied by the member shall be contacted.